Natural Principles of Resonance and the Link to Astrology and Well-Being

In Medical Astrology the zodiac signs and planets are assigned to each part of the human body, to systems in the body, to hormones, to a variety of diseases, and so on. Even the very building blocks of cells and life resonate to specific zodiac signs. There are 12 primary ones corresponding to the 12 zodiac signs.

12 simple organic life-supporting substances called Cell Salts, also known as Tissue Salts and sometimes Mineral Salts, must be in balance in the body to avoid finding itself in predicaments of disease and discomfort. And, it turns out, an imbalance in one of these substances can develop simply by being born under a specific Sun sign.

These Cell Salts, when used with common sense, are a natural way to resolve minor health complaints and support on-going wellness. They are found in most good health food stores. There are no known contraindications or side effects to medication. They are proven to work, using homeopathic methods, and are excellent short-term remedies for children and animals.

Background on Cell Salts

Back in the mid-1850's a German scientist, Rudolf Virchow, who made many scientific discoveries including recognizing leukemia cells, contributed to the development of "cell theory" – that the body is made up of cells. This led others, including and likely most recognizably, Dr. W.H. Schuessler, to create the Biochemic System of Medicine which correlated the importance of 12 inorganic substances found in cells to our well-being. There are four categories:

- Phosphates
- Chlorides
- Sulphates
- Fluorides

Each are components of the muscles, nerves, connective tissues, bones, teeth, blood, bile, gastric juices, brain, cartilage, skin, nails and hair, and every liquid and solid part of the body.

The result of these discoveries led to developing Cell Salts, which are very closely aligned with homeopathic remedies of the same categories. They are created the same way in that they contain the minutest amount of the mineral and come in different potencies. They are like a cross between a homeopathic remedy and a nutritional supplement.

How can knowing this improve the quality of your well-being? And how does this relate to astrology?

Astrological Connection

In the 1910's, a U.S. physician, Dr. George W. Carey, and his collaborator, Inez Eudora Perry, through research and collections of case studies, pinpointed the vibration of each mineral of the 12 salts to a zodiac sign. In now archaic language, the two describe what they learned of the spiritual, chemical, and cosmic law alignments of minerals to planetary and zodiacal energies. Through the Natural Law of Chemical Affinity, they identified that as we age, the Sun burns or uses up the mineral associated with our own Sun sign. They go so far as to say,

Increase the rate of activity of brain cells by supplying more of the dynamic molecules of the blood known as mineral or cell-salts of lime, potash, sodium, iron, magnesia, silica, and we see mentally, truths that we could not sense at lower or natural rates of motion, although the lower rate may manifest ordinary health.<sup>[1]</sup>

12 CELL SALTS AND SIGN CORRELATION

SIGN	FULL NAME	CHEMICAL NAME	VIRTUE
Aries	Kali Phosphoricum	Potash-Potassium Phosphate	Nerve Tonic
Taurus	Natrum Sulphuricum	Sodium Sulphate	Water Eliminator and Regulator
Gemini	Kali Muriaticum	Potassium Chloride	Glandular Tonic
Cancer	Calcarea Fluorica	Calcium Fluoride	Elasticity
Leo	Magnesium Phosphate	Magnesium Phosphate	Nerve and Muscle Relaxant
Virgo	Kali Sulphuricum	Potash-Potassium Sulphate	Skin Salt
Libra	Natrum Phosphoricum	Sodium phosphate	Acid Neutraliser
Scorpio	Calcarea Sulphuricum	Calcium sulphate	Blood Purifier and healer
Sagittarius	Silicea	Silicon Dioxide	Cleanser, Eliminator and Conditioner
Capricorn	Calcarea Phosphoricum	Calcium Phosphate	Bone Health and Nutrition
Aquarius	Natrum Muriaticum	Sodium Chloride	Fluid Balance and Water Distribution
Pisces	Ferrum Phosphate	Iron Phosphate	First Aid Salt and Oxygen Carrier

These Salts come in two forms—a lactose tablet easily dissolved under the tongue and in tincture form.

In Chapter 8 of Essays on Evolutionary Astrology, Jeffrey Wolf Green recommends,

Silica is a good cell salt that deals with constitutional vitality . . . It has a dramatic effect on constitutional strengthening.

And he has said,

Robert Jansky was a hero for me . . . because he essentially revolutionized medical astrology.<sup>[2]</sup>

Cell Salt Tonics Offered by Jansky

For both tonics, two tablets of each salt is recommended. (The most common potency is 6X. Fixed signs may need higher potency than other modalities or wait longer to notice results.)

(1) A simple Cell Salt Tonic to support on-going health

- Salt of your Sun sign
- Sun sign polarity
- Ferrum Phosphate

(2) A more complex Cell Salt Tonic for prevention

Take two tablets each:

- Salt of your Sun sign
- Sun sign polarity
- South Node of the Moon
- Saturn
- Ascendant

Always seek consultation with a qualified health care professional with regards to any health concerns. This information is intended for informational and research purposes only.

He emphasizes these Salts are not a magic pill. Ideally we would obtain these minerals through the foods that we eat and look for ones that contain more of the one suited to our Sun sign.<sup>[3]</sup> As with homeopathic remedies “less is more” when it comes to these Cell Salts.

The reason this topic interested me is because, as a longtime proponent of Cell Salts, I had been naturally drawn to use the Salts that were connected to my Sun sign, Aquarius, and the South Node of Moon sign, Aries. Last year’s Uranus conjunctions over my South Node of the Moon was just another confirmation. My nervous system was overstimulated in a way that I had never experienced. During one of the conjunctions, I had physical memories of past life extreme stress—stress that did not have a root in the present conditions. Taking the Aries Cell Salt and nerve tonic, Kali Phosphoricum, and the polarity Cell Salt to Aquarius, which is Leo’s Magnesium Phosphate, were wonderfully helpful.

Just as with other homeopathic remedies, one determines which Salt is desirable based on symptoms one is experiencing, rather than the name of one’s ailment. For example, someone with water retention or liver/gallbladder issues may find the Cell Salt called Natrum Sulphuricum helpful. A headache in the morning is helped by a different Salt than one for a stress headache.

The Sun represents our Vital Force, our Vitality. The Moon distributes this force. It makes sense to consider that the South Node of the Moon may be an area of challenge for some.

In Medical Astrology the South Node of the Moon is one of the weakest points in the chart. According to Cornell’s Medical Astrology Encyclopedia, this resonance of the South Node can be similar to Saturn’s influence in health when it conjoins an angle or personal planet. The book also recommends that all planetary nodes be considered and special emphasis be given to the latitude of the nodes and closeness to its planet, in which case the influence on health matters is stronger. Declination is to be considered as well.<sup>[4]</sup>

All planets combined correlate to the total story of oneself. Thus, the south nodes of any planet correlate to the prior chapters in that story or book: the total story. In order to totally and completely understand, let's say, the current life Venus, one must understand the South Node of Venus in order to know how and why the current life Venus is manifesting.<sup>[5]</sup>

— JEFFREY WOLF GREEN

This can be extended then to Medical Astrology. One might look at a root cause of a hearing issue by considering the South Node of Venus.

In the Medical Astrology Encyclopedia entry under the Zodiac Salts, it is recommended that when ill, the Sun sign's Salt should be given to build up vital energy while encouraging students to find the foods that contain the minerals of the signs in their birth charts and use diet to stay healthy. Those past mid-life should drink distilled water to avoid mineral build-ups that can come from water, and obtain what they need through the foods they eat. The encyclopedia was published in the 1930's.<sup>[6]</sup> The condition of the planet's soil may have us reconsider how to obtain vital nutrients.

If the Cell Salts contain only the smallest amount of the mineral, then how can we know they assist with healing?

Natural Principles of Homeopathy

The study of homeopathy is founded in a philosophy that attempts to remove the layers of distortion to reveal the purest and simplest of Divine Truths or Natural Principles by proving Laws work in an orderly, consistent manner.

A fundamental teaching in Evolutionary Astrology is the concept of observation and correlation which is also how homeopathic principles have been proven. There is much we cannot find in the human body,

Can we open up the brain and find [Soul] . . . we cannot open up the brain and find Consciousness. Is there a way to know the answer to the big cosmic questions versus the need to believe in an answer?

The happy news is that there is.<sup>[7]</sup>

— JEFFREY WOLF GREEN

Green could have just as easily stated, "Can we open up the body and see Vital Force?"

Vital Force correlates to the Sun. It is illusive, untouchable and yet perceptible. It is a "simple substance" that supports and is required for life. Similar to duality in physics where the wave and particles co-exist depending on perspective, Vital Force exists but is not measurable. We cannot put it in a cup and say we have eight ounces of Vital Force. It is experienced by the quality of life and health.<sup>[8]</sup>

Vital Force contains one other component called the Defense Mechanism. It keeps the human organism functioning in a healthy way even with some negative experiences/ input/stimuli; however it is possible that the experience/ input/stimuli has a level of frequency that is so disturbing, it changes the resonance of the organism.<sup>[9]</sup> The Sun loses strength.

The term Resonance is used when matching up frequency between two objects, two remedies, two systems. When 'in resonance,' the frequencies may not exactly be the same, but are in the same harmonic spectrum. The resonant vibration of one object or substance can activate the same or similar vibration in another object like the human body.<sup>[10]</sup>

Through the Natural Law of Resonance we are led to a proven Truth, the Law of Similars. Using resonant frequencies or substances with resonant frequencies, diseases and energy disturbances can be cured.<sup>[11]</sup> A simpler way to look at this is, if you give the same substance that is causing an illness to a sick person in a very small dosage, that person can regain health, whereas, giving it to a healthy person would induce illness.

When we are unwell, our vital energy is decreased. When we age we experience lower vitality. The Salts connected to our Sun sign raise the vibration of our Vital Force and improve quality of life.

Besides the Sun and South Node of the Moon, the Cell Salts for the Ascendant, the sign of Saturn, the 6th (short-term health) and 12th (long-term health) house signs and planetary rulers may be helpful to support as needed. The Sun/Moon midpoint is often a describer of health and may be another point to observe. Significant transits or progressions to these areas may be eased through support from Cell Salts. I have not seen research in this area, but have become aware through client work of the health disturbances that can sometimes arise when Pluto (hormone issues), Saturn (flu's and incapacitating illnesses that linger), Neptune (tiredness, weakness, immune system, more sensitivity to toxins) align with the Sun/Moon midpoint. Though not having tracked the numbers, it seems the conjunction is most sensitive.

To your well-being!

SHAWN LIMBACH

Though Shawn's grandmother sparked the memory of astrology via Venus at sunset in early childhood, a philosophical and spiritual path was initiated later after meeting Jeffrey Wolf Green in the mid-1980's. Shawn Limbach has been studying astrology for over 30 years, working with clients in Canada and the U.S. for 10 years. Ongoing interests beyond EA include Medical Astrology, Shamanism, bioresonance balancing, homeopathic principles and philosophy, and writing. Painting is the current obsession.
